Polytron, Inc. Joins the PTC Partner Network

DULUTH, GA, August 25, 2021 — Polytron, Inc. today announced that it has joined the PTC Partner Network with the ThingWorx IIoT Platform System Integrator. Polytron brings almost 40 years of system integration and engineering consulting expertise to the Food, Beverage, and Consumer Goods industries that result in enhanced IIoT data management capabilities across the manufacturing plant floor. The new Polytron partnership with PTC will enhance our IIoT offering to our clients.

“Polytron is pleased to join the PTC Partner Network,” said Damian Stahl, Vice President, Operations, Polytron. The ThingWorx platform will facilitate rapid deployment of IIoT solutions for remote monitoring applications where the traditional server and network infrastructure may not exist.”

“We’re pleased to welcome Polytron, Inc. to the PTC Partner Network,” said John Gray, Divisional Vice President, PTC Partner Network. By joining our world class partner organization, they will be equipped with the tools and resources needed for partner success: allowing their organization to innovate with leading technologies, collaborate with customers and capitalize on new and exciting market opportunities that are unlocked by the convergence of physical and digital worlds.”
